staff members of these departments.

Not all editorial meetings were so calm. Editor Jean Gove is surrounded by Associate Editors Melba MacLeod, Frank Virnelli, Sharon McDermott, and Sandra Hecht.

The business of subscriptions, advertising, and circulation is capably handled by the Sahico girls at their "office" in Room 204.

Superintendent Morgan is well pleased with the blueprints of the new high school.

Mr. Pearce, our principal, gives his thoughtful attention to a phone call during a busy day.

Department heads appreciate a photographer's joke at one of their recent meetings.

Do you suppose the report the Testing Director holds is really as humorous as the Administration

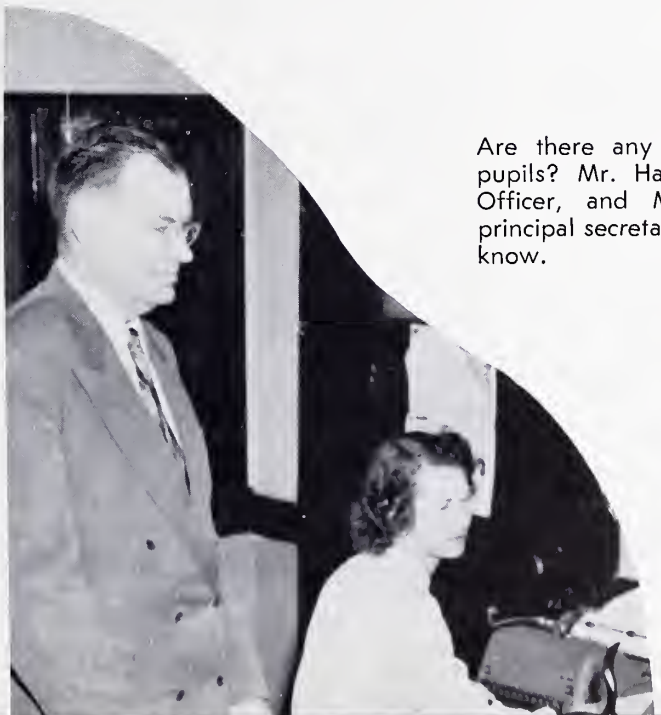
Mr. Young, Submaster, finds everything in order on his outside inspection.

Miss Hayward, Dean of Girls, confers with Girls' Club officers, one of her multiple duties.

Guidance Director and Secretary appear to think it is?



Are there any really bad pupils? Mr. Haley, Truant Officer, and Mrs. Hazel, principal secretary, ought to know.

MARILYN JOYCE OLDFORD—1 Elaine Avenue; Hey!; Dental Assistant.—Quiet, friendly Marilyn has an aversion to cliques. She is going to become a dental assistant. We know she'll be a very good one.—Girls' Club; Junior Prom Decoration Committee 3.

RICHARD JOHN OLESKY—39 Houston Avenue; Dick; Work.—Nonchalant Dick's witty remarks and quiet ways have won him many friends. He isn't likely to find any Bermuda shorts when he goes to work.—Boys' Club; Junior Prom Committee 3; Visual Aids, Dance Committee 4.

MILDRED P. PEACH—5 Grove Street; Peaches; Nurse.—Happy-go-lucky Peaches will be very successful in her career in nursing. Warning to all people who wear Bermudas and knee socks—they are her aversions.—Girls' Club; Ski Club 2; Operetta 2; Sophomore Dance Committee; Junior Prom Decoration Committee; Senior Prom Decoration Committee; Pep Squad 2, 3.

DAVID PESCHIER—221 Broadway; Dave; College.—Dave, who plans to go to college next year, likes everyone and everything. His favorite saying is, "I don't know."—Baseball 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Boys' Club.

ROBERT E. PIWOWARSKI—27 Dustin Street; "Bob Pi"; College.—Big, husky "Bob-Pi" is terrific on or off the football field, and we're all very proud of him. We've been wondering though, if when he goes to college, he will meet any girls who kick footballs.—Football 2, 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom and Senior Prom Dance Committees.

RICHARD PROVENZANO—11 Morton Avenue; Prov; College.—Quiet Prov is friendly toward all. We wish him luck and success at Teachers' College.—Boys' Club; Treasurer of Boys' Glee Club 4.

PAULINE FRANCES RANDAZZO—20 Nason Road; Polly; Secretary.—Attractive Pauline is popular with everyone. She has added much spark to our twirling squad. Whether she goes into a secretarial position or attends a business school, we know she'll be a success. Cold mornings are her aversion.—Twirler 3, 4; Usherettes 4; Sahico 4; Pep Squad 1; Senior Prom Queen; Sophomore Dance Committee; Junior Prom Committee; Library Club Treasurer; Girls' Club.

SYLVIA J. REILLY—199 Central Street; Syl; Religion.—Quiet Syl is planning to go into religious education. We wish her the best and hope she does not meet any teenage girls who smoke.—Girls' Club; Pep Squad 2, 3; Softball 2.

MALCOLM STUART RICE—Mal; College.—Popular Mal, with personality plus, will be long remembered for his pleasing disposition, quick wit, and superb job as football co-captain. His sincerity and friendliness will always be his leading asset. Mal has no aversion and will attend college next year.—Boys' Club President 4; National Honor Society 2, 3, 4; Student Council 2, 4, Secretary 2; Junior Red Cross 3, Vice President 3; Student Exchange 4; Football; Baseball 3, 4.

DAVID RICHARDS—30 Newcomb Street; Dave; Commercial Artist.—Handsome Dave will surely succeed as a commercial artist with his terrific art ability. He has no aversions.—Boys' Club.

DOROTHY ALICE RICHARDS—105 Hesper Street; Dotty; College.—As a twirler, Dot has been a great asset to our band. She will have a successful college career if she keeps her likeable ways. Her aversion is people who wear queer color combinations.—Library Club, Secretary; Pep Squad 2; Girls' Club, Dance Committee 2, 3, 4; Ring Committee 3; Twirler 3, 4; National Honor Society, Junior Riverside, Usherettes, Lieutenant 4; Class Treasurer 1, 2.

NANCY LOUISE RICHARDSON—46 Mt. Vernon Street; Nanc; College.—Popular and vivacious Nanc has certainly been a credit to SHS. We know her poise and charm will carry her far in college. Her aversion is chipped nail polish.—Girls' Club, Vice President 3, President 4; Usherettes 4; Softball 2; Pep Squad 2; Class History 4; Ski Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee 2; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Prom Committee; Guidance Board 4; Student Exchange Committee 4; Basketball 4.

GEORGE FREDERICK RILEY—9 Maple Road; Rip; Art School.—With his wonderful artistic ability, George will be a success at art school. We doubt whether he'll be able to avoid Monday mornings however.—Boys' Club; Football 1, 2; Ski Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Vice President 4.

DONALD FRANCIS RIPPON—41 Harrison Avenue; Rip; Undecided.—Rip has been quiet during his four years of high school. He has not decided what type of work he would like to do. We hope he doesn't meet any tall people.—Boys' Club.

CAROLYN LOUISE ROBERTS—53 Seagirt Avenue; Carol; Hairdressing.—Carol has one great aversion—homework. When she becomes a hairdresser, we know she will not have any.—Girls' Club; Junior Prom Decorating Committee.

ROBERT FARRIN ROBINSON—10 Stone Street; Bob; College.—Bob, with his friendly smile and ways, surely will be a success in any college. There may be Bermudas there, Bob!—Glee Club, President 4; Boys' Club.

ALBERT ROHBACKER—9 Juliette Road; Al; Work.—Pleasant Al is known for his friendliness. When he goes to work, though, he'll have to face those "Monday mornings."—Boys' Club.

JOANNE ROBBINS—3 Third Street; Joannie; Business School.—Joannie, with her pleasant smile and pretty long hair, plans to attend business school. She has an aversion to girls who smoke.—Girls' Club; Camera Club.

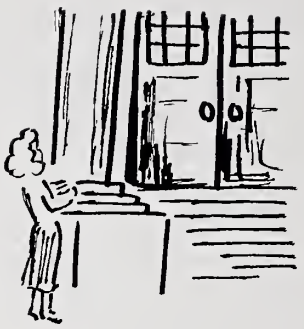
Class History



FRESHMAN YEAR 1951-1952

We shall never forget that "blessed day" when we became Freshmen at Saugus High School. Oh, how big this school seemed as we walked up the stone walk to the door!! This was the beginning of our high school years. We felt so small as we hurried up the wrong corridors to our classes, continually being misdirected by the big seniors. Although we were minute, we made a great start in many different activities, with Mr. Kelley as our advisor.

Along to the Hall of Ivy (pardon us, S.H.S.), came another first year'er. Mr. J. J. Morgan started his term as "Superintendent of Schools" during our freshman year. We all were a little bit leary of a new "Super," but it didn't take Mr. Morgan very long to win us all over to his side.

So many new things were inaugurated this year. It was to our credit that Miss Jane H. Fulton came to Saugus to teach English.

By popular demand, our class officers were: president, Ann Hamilton; veep, Charles Keefe; secretary, Ginger Moss; treasurer, Dot Richards.

Mr. Mitchell received many fine new band members from our class. In April, after diligent practice all winter long, the band gave a concert at Lynn City Hall. Everyone spoke of the wonderful program for some time afterward. A truly great job was done.

Mr. Mitchell organized a Boys' Dance Orchestra, and they performed for the first time for Talent Nite.

The "Foxy Frolickers" from 105 made their first appearance this year. They were a panic!

We really were privileged to have Richie Krom, Bob Piwowarski, Charlie Ames, Fred Case, and Mal Rice, in their freshman year, for our basketball team. The team won 4 games, and lost 7. They also beat the faculty, which was a tough job to do. In hockey, Jack Lawrence was holding the freshman banner. The "Pony Tail" won top honors as the favorite haircut among the girls. "Poodle Cut" ran a close second.

The All Girls' Orchestra also made its debut at the Girls' Club assembly in February of '52.

The Glee Club presented "A Waltz Dream," the first operetta to be given in Saugus for many, many years. Joan Forward, as a mere freshman, was cast in the leading part.

Ann Miles was named "Charleston Queen" after a hockey dance contest. Could she dance!!!

Hey, remember the "pooka?"

In June, a big question was put to us. "Where are you going on your outing?" There was a great deal of talk, but after much debate, Nantasket was chosen. On, or around the 21st, we sailed on our chartered boat. You'd have thought, to see us all piling on with all of our bundles and things, that we were going on an extended tour on the U.S.S. United States. It was loads of fun though, and I know that everyone had a wonderful time. A better close to a freshman year could never be had.

With our Freshman year behind us, with all of its trials and tribulations, we took our first timid steps into the sophomore year. We were no longer considered the minute, simple freshmen; we were now "Those (Ha) Sophomores." Little did we know the big tasks that were ahead.

President Truman thought that he had a tough job in his "place of business," but Jack Lawrence wasn't exactly having a ball in S.H.S. By popular vote, he was named president; with Virginia Moss as vice president; Dorothy Richards, as treasurer; and Virginia Rees, as secretary. Mr. Kelley was named our class advisor for the second year.

Many things were big "firsts" this year. The D.A. haircut came out in all of its splendor. (It was fun to watch the first novices of this coiffure strut down the hallways. To watch them, you'd think that they were balancing eggs on their craniums.)

With Miss Fulton's wonderful help and untiring energy, the Pep Squad was formed. We'll never forget the wonderful times that were had by all at the football games. Man, they really were peppy.

The Pep Squad also held their first dance. Frankie Winchester and his Q.T. Boys were on the musical end of things, and all-in-all, it added up to a successful dance.

Our contributions to "Mr. Janusas' Maulers" were Mal Rice and Bob Powowarski. Mal was considered the "Little Dynamite" by all, and Bob, the "Sophomore Sensation." They were both great.

Camera Club held their first dance in ages this year. The Sachem Swing band played for the first time, too. Bob McLaughlin, John (Doc) Graham, and John Gribbon deserved medals for their part in it.

"Forest Prince" was the name of the Glee Club Operetta in '53. Everyone worked hard at rehearsals, and a better performance couldn't be seen on Broadway.

The National Honor Society initiated fourteen new members from the sophomore class. They were Paul Downing, Richard Krom, Joan Glinski, Sandra Hecht, Louise Wallis, Charles Ames, Virginia Moss, Kenneth Maguire, Dorothy Richards, Mal Rice, Muriel Bryant, Pat Atkinson, Joan Forward, and Joanne Casperian.

Miss Fulton again came up with something new for S.H.S. We can never forget the threat to the Giants . . . otherwise known as the Girls' Softball team. It was really pathetic for about a week after the first practice session, though. All that could be heard around school was, "Oh, don't touch my sore arm!"—"Hey, watch out for my mashed muscle!" We non-baseball playing students really pitied them. (Heh! Heh! Heh!)

Lynn City Hall was again the place chosen for the band concert. A big crowd showed and enjoyed every minute of the fine performance which has now become an annual event.

Nantasket, again, was chosen as our outing destination this year. Everyone especially enjoyed dancing on the boat under the stars (?).

JUNIOR YEAR 1953-1954

We are NOW becoming men and women of the world, and we feel as though no one could ever put us down.

There were a couple of new recruits to Saugus High. Barb Dell came from Everett High, and Joan Robbins, from Lynn. Two nicer gals we never hope to meet.

Mr. Kelley still held the honor of Class Advisor. Jack Lawrence was voted to serve another term as president. Jack Flanagan copped veep; Janet Richards, secretary; and Ginny Rees, treasurer.

Our social life really blossomed this year. The Junior Prom was a huge success. Its theme was "This is Heaven," and from the soft looks and sly glances that whole week after the dance, I would venture to say that the dance really lived up to its name. Janet Richards and Paul Downing were voted "King and Queen."

Our football team really did us proud this year. Six wins, one loss, and one tie was the record. The hockey squad did very well, too.

Another change was made this year . . . the Senior Reception was formal. I'm sure everyone will agree that it really was a treat.

The Camera Club had a "first" record hop. Jay Richards put in an appearance. Bobby Wayne and the "Jones Boy" came along, too.

"Fostina Was A Lady" . . . remember? That was the name of the operetta, written and presented by the Glee Club. They really worked hard on it, and were rewarded by a full house on opening night. Everyone enjoyed it immensely.

V.A. Club was started this year. Mr. Stuzziero was the teacher in charge, and the students themselves voted for their own cabinet. Movies were shown in the auditorium, and in home rooms. Quite a few juniors were accepted as members.

We all trekked to Lynn City in April to listen to the band concert. Mr. Mitchell could well be proud of the performance that they put on.

The Girls' Club Dance came snowballing to S.H.S. on about December 10. "Snow" predominated among a bevy of beautifully gowned girls and tall, goodlooking guys. A wonderful season, a wonderful dance, a wonderful time was enjoyed by everyone.

In March, after the last installment was paid, we received the fruits of our hard-saved spending money . . . our class rings! Boy, will you ever forget the feeling that you got the first time that someone took notice of your ring? I doubt if anyone will really forget.

Talent Nite was a highlight of the year, as usual. Practically everyone turned out for it . . . from alumni to Junior High students. Remember BIMBO? Mrs. Shuff sewed her way into our program this year. Most of her students were seniors, but a few of the juniors managed to sneak in. That was some fashion show that they put on, huh?

Hey, anyone remember a certain beach party? (Or should I have said, has anyone forgotten the beach party?) It was the first one ever permitted and supervised by the school, and a more successful party you'll have to show me.

For the third straight win, Nantasket got our vote for "Where we would most like to go on our outing." Everyone must have had a good time, because we haven't heard any complaints as yet.

Along with the fun of junior year, there, of course, had to come something to mar our happy memories. Mr. Rice met with a hunting accident that was to keep him out of circulation for many months. We missed him. Cards were sent, and those who didn't send cards, said prayers. We were all glad to see him, once again, walk through the halls just before the school year was brought to a close.

SENIOR YEAR 1954-1955

Whoopie!!! Made it !!!

"The High and the Mighty." Seniors at last !!!

How small our school seemed now as we watched the little freshmen hurry to their classes, up the wrong corridors, under our directions.

Our first big triumph was in finally securing white caps and gowns for the girls.

Next, Alan Curtis took us for a ride on the "Showboat," which was the theme for our Senior Prom. Mal Rice and Pauline Randazzo reigned as King and Queen of the Mississippi. Judging from conversations heard the day after the dance, we'd say everyone enjoyed the trip.

In February a, shall we say "friendly" feud was started between Senior Home-Rooms 105 and 108. What over, Why the Talent Nite, of course. Both 105's "Foxy Frolickers" and "Andy's One O'Eighters" struggled to achieve top honors in the "Sachem Hall of Fame."

Remember "Inner Willy?" This entrancing demon was enjoyed by all as the star of the Senior Play. As always, Mrs. Anderson pushed and polished her cast with rehearsals " 'til six," so that they were able to produce a sparkling comedy on the night of February 19, 1955. Need we say more?

In March, our glee club, seventy-six members strong, gave a spring concert, the first of its kind to be presented in S.H.S. This musical treat was complete with rhythmic dances and prettily gowned sopranos.

Hey, remember Mrs. Shoer, girls? I don't think any of us will forget the lectures she gave us or the old fashioned dances that we laughed so much over Our Physical Education program was not the best in the world, but Mrs. Shoer really made it seem "not-so-bad-at-all."

In this last year, we had two class advisors. Mr. Kelley joined forces with Mrs. Anderson to try to hold us all lown to a slow trot. Mr. Kelley had been our class advisor since freshman year, and I guess he just didn't dare face senior year alone. We really did keep him on his toes, though.

April saw fifty of us off for a little jaunt to Washington. Will we ever forget swimming in the pool at the hotel, or the thrill of seeing the White House?

Also in April the last page of the "Tontoquonian" went to press. Yes, after the confusion of becoming accustomed to the publishing system of a new company, "Taylormade," the staff finally succeeded in producing a beautiful yearbook.

Well, the months flew by with our ever-popular president, Jack Lawrence, leading us through the fun and foibles of our Senior Year. Also leading us that year were Paul Downing as "veep," Ginny Rees as treasurer, and Janet Richards as secretary.

Soon it was June, and the inevitable date was approaching. Finally it was here —graduation week.

The wonderful outing at Canobie Lake left us all exhausted, but everyone had loads of fun.

We all looked forward to Class Night. The "Glory Grabbers" entertained us and as well gave us some serious thought with their presentation of the Class Will and Prophecy. Following the entertainment, a banquet was served in the cafeteria. The third thrill of the evening—we were now the proud possessors of our "Tontoquonian."

Just before graduation we dolled up in tuxes and evening gowns for "The" Junior-Senior Reception.

This whirl of parties and outings concluded with our solemn and impressive Baccalaureate on Sunday, June 12. On Monday, June 13, we received our diplomas and sang farewell to our "Alma Mater"—

CLASS ODE

In the harbor we've been sheltered
From the perils of the sea,

Gathering stores of precious knowledge,
Charting courses carefully,

Learning how to shun the breakers,
Hazards of the ageless deep—

Tender memories of our harbor
In our hearts we'll always keep.

To the open sea we're sailing;
May the waters be serene;

But if the storm clouds threaten,
We will ne'er forget the scene

Of the light house in our harbor,
Sending forth its beam of truth—

Sing farewell to Saugus High School,
Cherished haven of our youth.

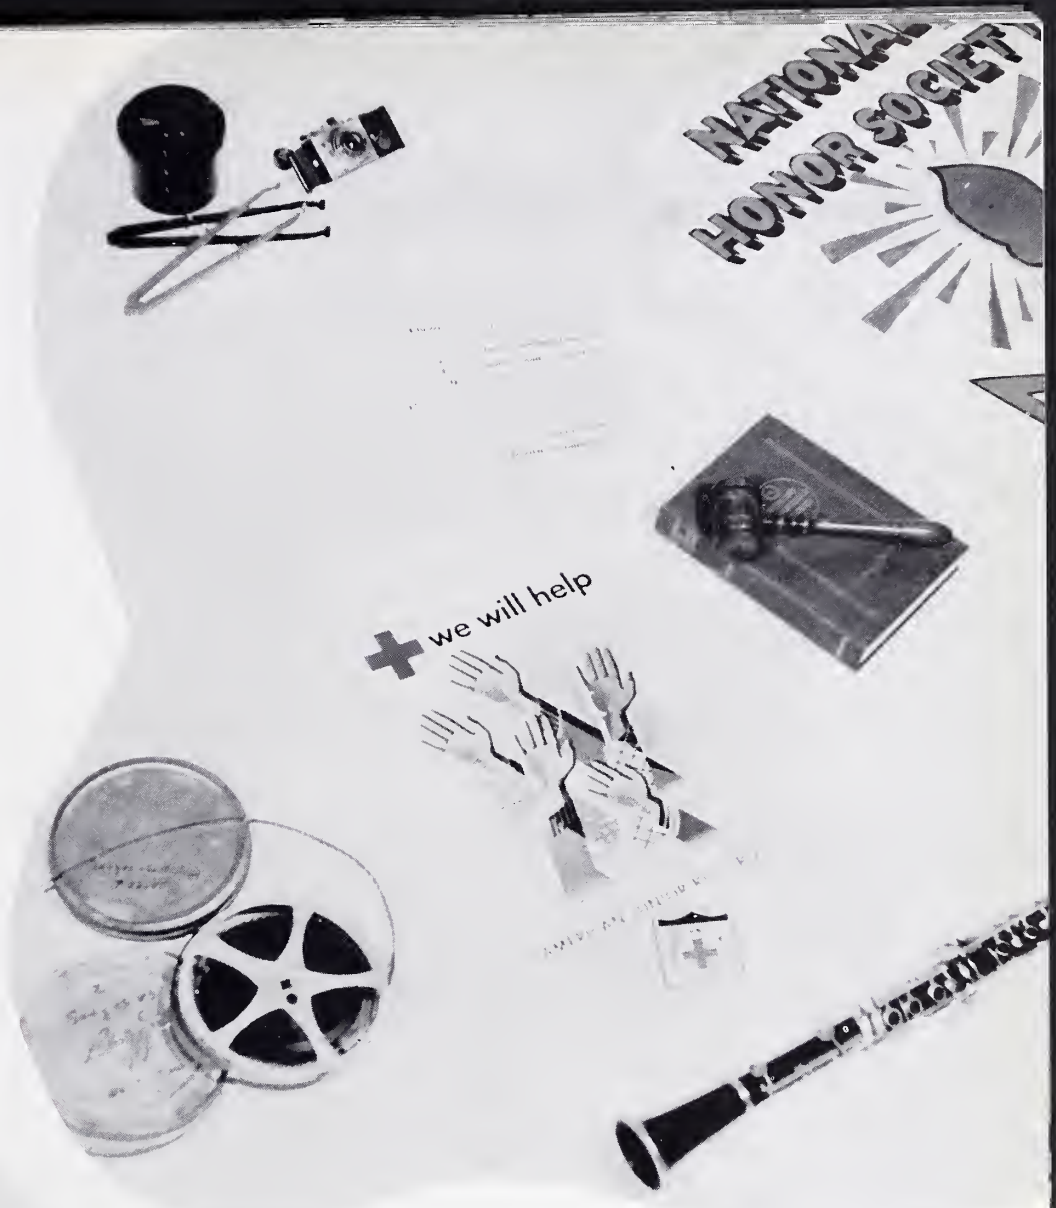
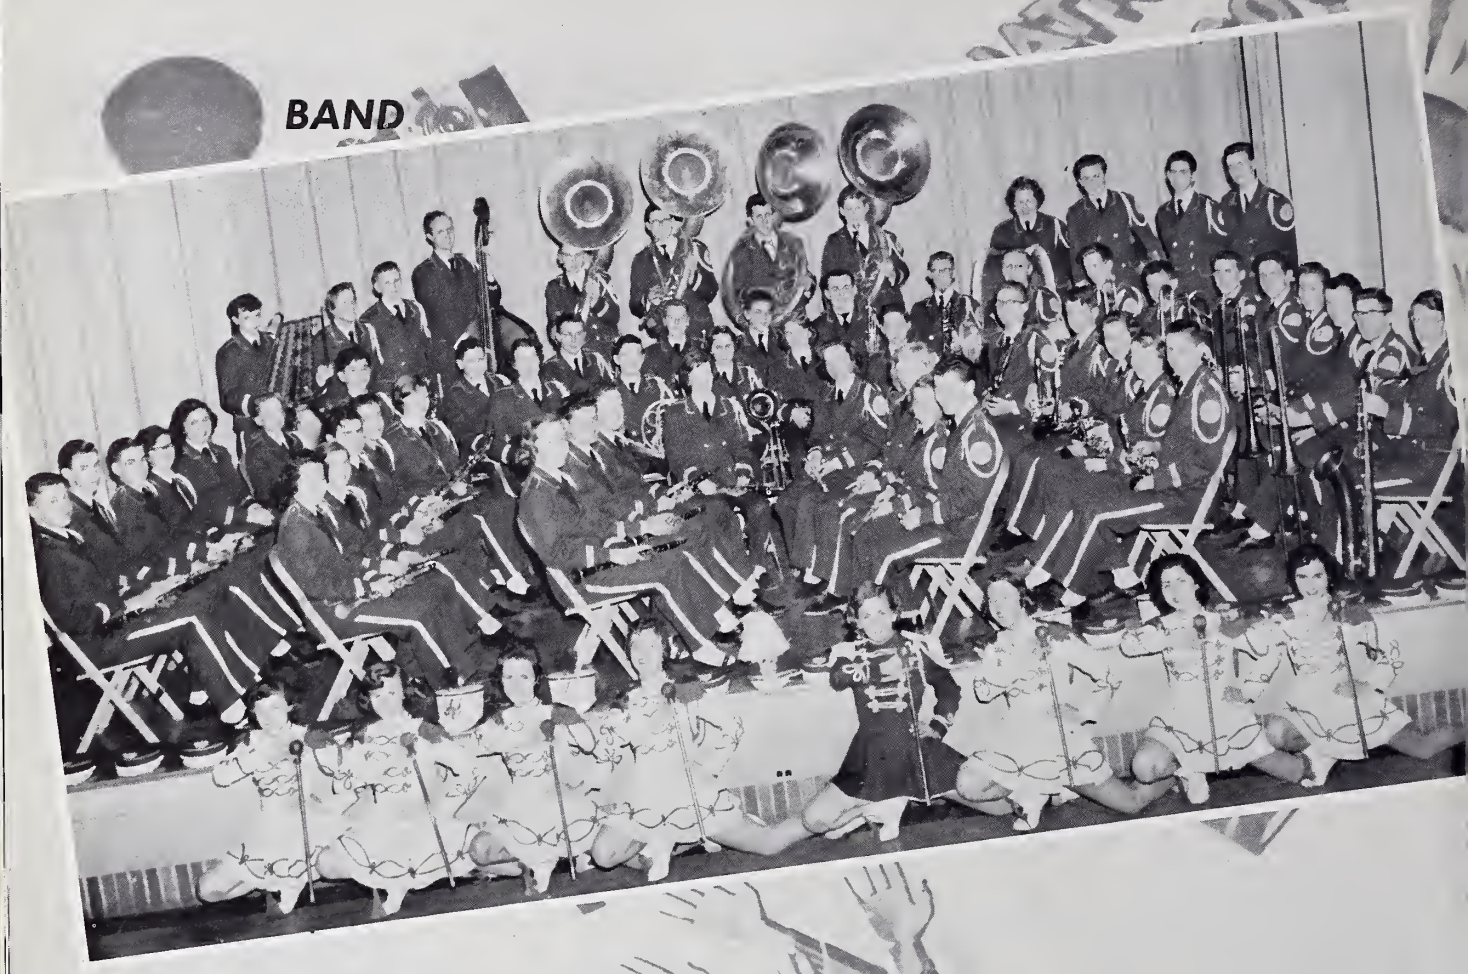
was the cry on April 15th as the large group, shown below before the Jefferson Memorial set out to view the sights of our nation's capital.

From Jan. to cherry blossoms! Remember how the picture below was taken.



Activities

BAND



In concert formation the Saugus High Band, so capably trained by Mr. Mitchell, poses on the stage of the Veterans' School, looking fit and ready for the spring concert.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

"Now the day is over, night is drawing nigh . . ."

Girls + gowns = USHERETTES Nice formula!

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Although this group of attractive young ladies do not show the effect of their hard work, their accomplishments are apparent in the success of GIRLS' CLUB activities.

BOYS' CLUB OFFICERS surround President Mal Rice like V.I.P.'s around President Eisenhower, but they won't get gift pens after signing of "legislation" because Mal has only one to use.

Neck injury? No. Just Jackie Lawrence scoring against Haverhill in Jamboree.

Revere: Bob Piwowarski broke a scoreless deadlock midway in the second period when he climaxed a Sachem scoring drive (above) by plunging over from the four-yard line. In the second half the Saugus line stiffened, while Mal Rice scored two touchdowns to put the game on ice.

The score was 6-0 for Classical at the end of the first half when Saugus started to move the ball. Despite the sustained drive of Saugus ball-carriers, shown in these pictures, time ran out, preventing Saugus from changing the score.

AT MARBLEHEAD, the Sachems, led by the touchdown twins, Mal Rice (left), and Bob Piwowarski (below) who each scored two touchdowns, romped to a 26-7 win. Charlie Lawrence had one of his best days as he completed six out of seven passes to Downing and Leahy (right).

Norm LeBlanc, a friendly Saugus linesman, hardly ever spears Saugus players back over the sideline as he appears to be doing below.

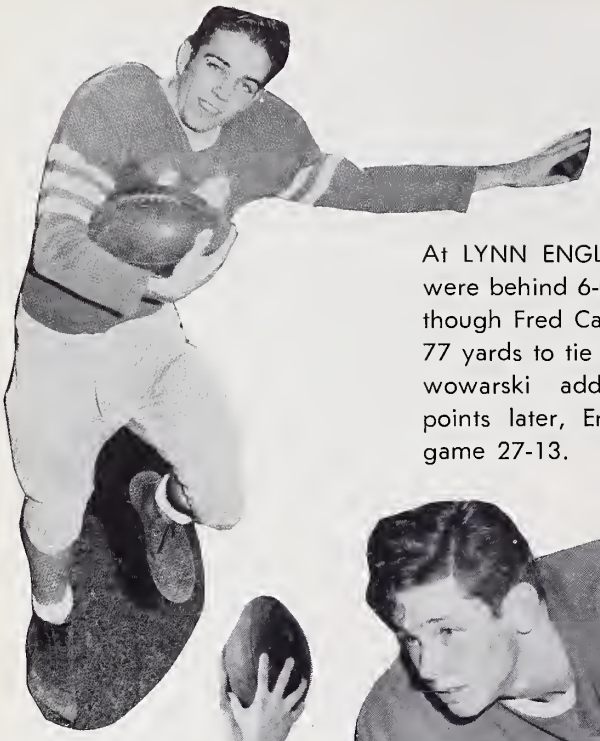
Beverly a rugged team, overpowered Saugus at the first home game of the year 25-0. Held to no gain in the first half, Saugus (below), sparked by Charlie Lawrence and Mal Rice, made two sustained drives in the third period only to have each stopped by bad breaks.



At LYNN ENGLISH the Sachems were behind 6-0 at half time. Although Fred Case (left) romped 77 yards to tie it up and Bob Piwowarski added another six points later, English ended the game 27-13.

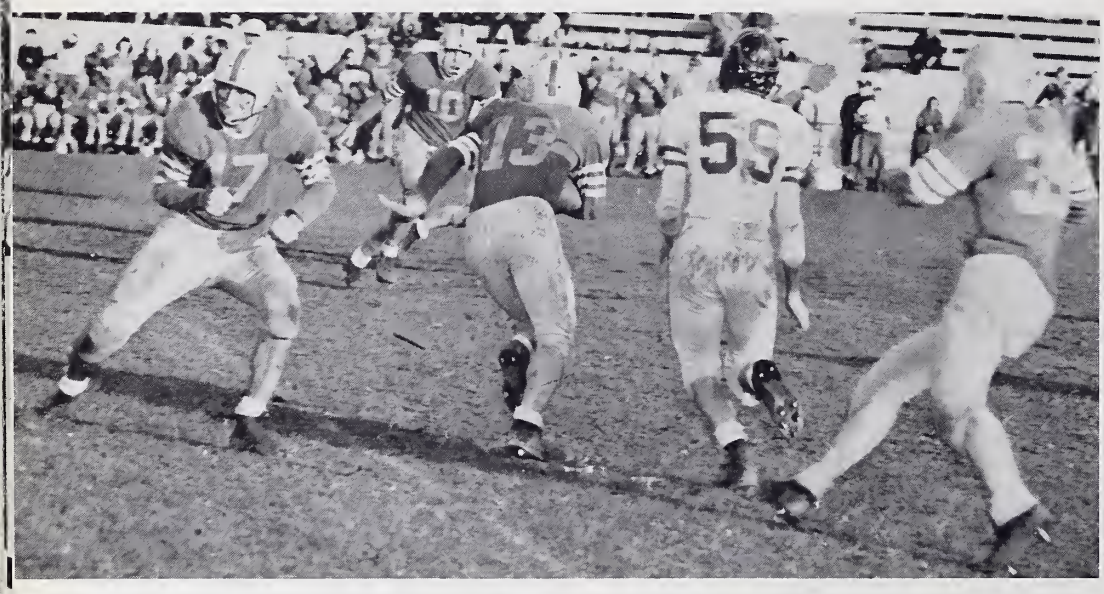
Saugus revenged last year's setback by Chelsea by defeating them 12-0 in a morning game. After a scoreless first half in which Saugus defense was outstanding, the Sachems received a break as Paul Downing (left) recovered a fumble on the Chelsea 38. Piwowarski carried the ball over early in the last quarter, and Rice raced 71 yards for the second score which ended the game.

The powerful Saugus line was indispensable in winning the six victories of this 1954-1955 season. At left, guard Ed Oljey, tackle Fred Bradley and end Ted Dwyer add up to 530 pounds of power.

Center Billy Ellis (above), tackle Bob Lancaster (above, right), and guard Tommy Mullen (right), are three more reasons why Saugus won 6 out of 9 this season.

WINTHROP was a 41-0 field day for the regulars. Case, Piwowarski, Charlie Lawrence, and Rice all scored. In the second half, played mostly by J.V.'s, Ned Orlando made one of the longest runs of recent years: 92 yards for a score.

Scoring almost at will, the Sachems ran wild against the AMESBURY eleven. They were helped by costly Amesbury fumbles that accounted for three Saugus tallies in the first period. Scoring for Saugus were Fred Case with two, Bob Piwowarski, Paul Downing, and Charlie Lawrence who scored twice and passed for another.



The fanciest play of the afternoon was a triple lateral play in which Charlie Lawrence, Mal Rice, Bob Piwowarksi and Fred Case handled the ball as Saugus picked up twenty yards. The substitutes, playing in every period, got a good workout too.

On Thanksgiving morning, wet and unfavorable for playing, Saugus won their fourth straight victory over a stubborn PEABODY team. Playing their last game for Saugus High School were Jack Lawrence, Charlie Lawrence, Mal Rice, Fred Case, Bob Piwowarski, Ted Dwyer, Art White, Tom Mullen, Ken Ballard, Fred Mac Donald, Paul Downing, and Fred Bradley.

BOYS' CLUB TALENT SHOW

None of us will ever forget Saturday, September 18, 1954, when the highlight of the 325th Anniversary celebration took place: the greatest parade that Saugus had ever seen.

On that same day another historic event took place: the laying of the cornerstone of the new Saugus High School. Participating were Janet Richards, Senior Class Secretary, and Jack Lawrence, President of the Senior Class.

The Girls' Basketball Team, coached by Mrs. Shoer, won all but one of their games. Unfortunately pictures taken of the team in play did not come out, so the only tribute we could pay you this year, girls, is to include the picture above. First row: Parson, Nickolson, Randazzo, Gerniglia, Holmes, Peach, Pazzotti, Banks. Second row: Bambury, Grady, Nordin, Atkinson, Mitchell, Blunt, Keefe. Third row: Como, Carr, Amery, Ackerman, Grove, Mrs. Shoer. Fourth row: Chesley, Shepherd, Richardson, Moss, Eisenhower, and Miles.
